50TH ANNIVERSARY AFRICA
CONCOURS
D'ELEGANCE
SCHEDULED FOR SEPTEMBER 25TH,
2022 AT THE NAIROBI RACECOURSE
Organised by the Alfa Romeo Owners
Club (Kenya)
A FIM Africa recognized and sanctioned event

BULLETIN NUMBER ONE

DECEMBER 2ND, 2021

In line with a long standing tradition the 50th anniversary Africa Concours d'Elegance will be held on September 25th, 2022 by the Alfa Romeo Owners Club.

This will be the classiest event on the motor sport calendar and will take place in the stately grounds of the Nairobi Racecourse thanks to the Jockey Club of Kenya.

The decision to schedule the landmark Concours on September 25th was reached by careful consideration and the organisers involved the Kenya Motor Sports Federation (KMSF) the Motorcycle Sports Federation of Kenya(MSFK) and the Jockey Club of Kenya.

The regulations will follow the established pattern listing twelve classes for cars and eight for motorcycles. To ensure high standards of judging the field will be limited to 70 cars and 40 motorcycles. There will be an impressive number of prizes including the top three cars and bikes, class winners and the best results achieved by machines of various makes.

The regulations will soon be published on the event website; www.concourskenya.com and our Twitter handle @concours_kenya and the next bulletin will feature a provisional list of the classes.

If you have any suggestions concerning the Concours please phone Bob Dewar, Lucy Mungai, or Hellen Andrew by telephone on 3331610, 2229793, 2229459, or 0733732032, or by email at info@bobpr.com, or visit the Concours office located in Block G of Norfolk Towers, Kijabe Street.

Many thanks for your past and future support which has made the Concours a great motoring and social date.
