PRIZE FUND IS BACK

After three years of not having a prize fund, this year's Concours d'Elegance re-introduces the much coveted prize fund alongside the many trophies and prizes to be won.

Participants in this year's event will stand the chance to win cash prizes for the three podium winners in each of the 20 classes in contention, in addition to the overall podium winners for the car and motorcycle categories.

Spaces are filling up, so submit your entry immediately to avoid disappointment.

Advance gate tickets are also already on sale at a bargain price for those who would like extra tickets, or if you need to refer a friend to purchase tickets - see details in the poster below.
